

Mini sculpture of Liberty Bell

Україна, Ужгород, міні-скульптура Дзвін Свободи
48.624976, 22.296660

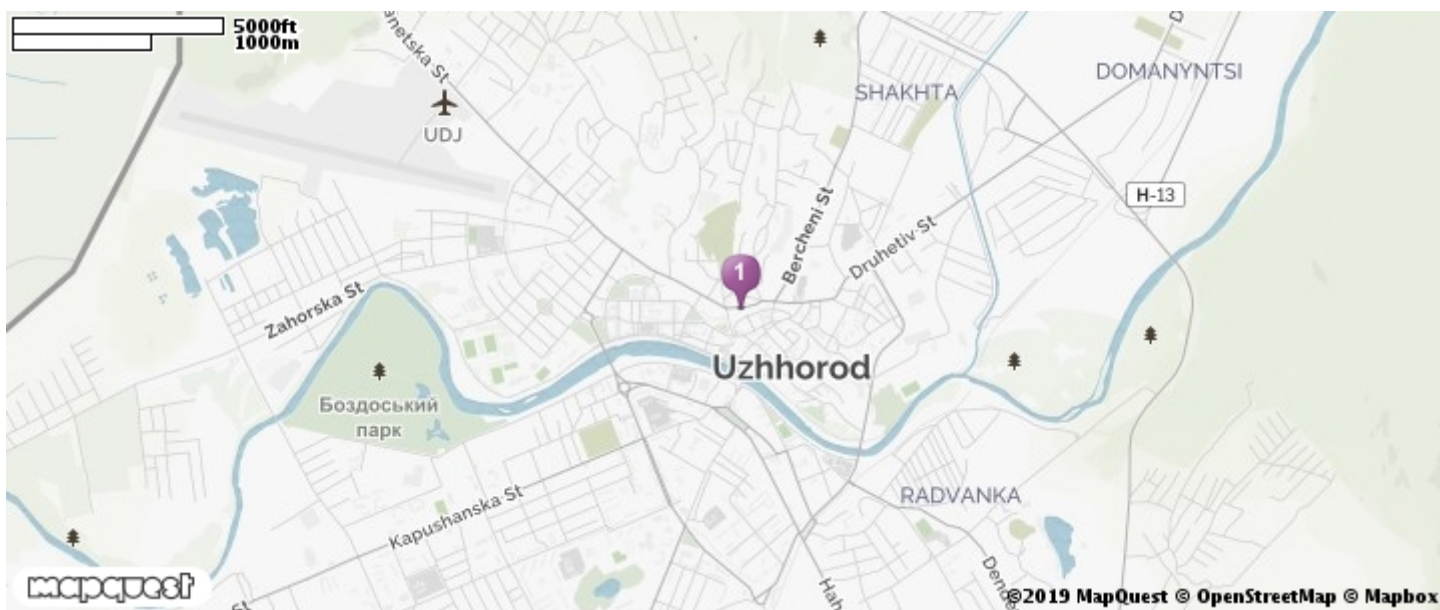

This 29th mini-sculpture was opened in Uzhgorod on December 2, 2017. It was placed in front of the entrance to the building of the former county, where today is located the Art Museum. From bronze was cast Grigory Zhatkovich (1920-1921) - the first governor of Subcarpathian Rus, one of the five lands that were part of the first Czechoslovak Republic, which existed from 1919 to 1938. It was later named &quot;Carpathian Ukraine&quot;. The sculpture of the governor sitting on the bell was opened by the author Mykhailo Kolodko together with one of the first governors of Transcarpathia after the proclamation of Ukraine's Independence by Sergey Ustich.
