Ужгород Міні-скульптура «Іштван Лаудон»

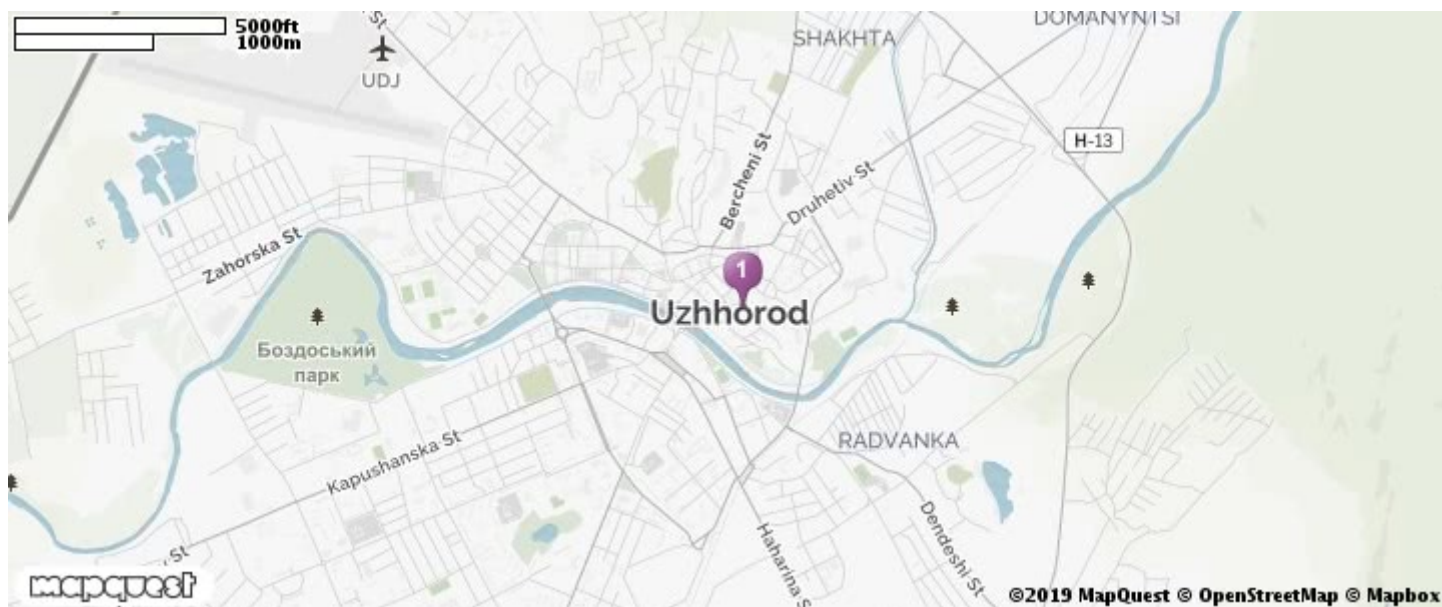

48.6223502, 22.3021255

Istvan Laudon collected during his travels unique plants planted in his garden. Laudon founded a unique arboretum in the garden. The opening of the mini-monument is dedicated to the 130th anniversary of this unique arboretum. During its heyday, the Laudon Garden occupied a large area from Sobranetskaya Street to the Independence Quay. There were more than two hundred exotics at that time. He was considered one of the finest works of park art in Austria-Hungary. More information on the blog Istvan Laudon Mini-Sculpture
